

Training for Tribes and Organizations

Thank you for expressing interest in the Alaska Native Justice Center's training offerings. To help us understand your needs, please complete the form below and return a copy by email. Your responses will enable us to deliver effective training to your team. We look forward to collaborating with you.

First Name _____

Last Name _____

Job Title & Organization _____

Address _____

City/State/Zip _____

Phone _____

Email _____

Training Topics Requested

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Active Efforts   | <input type="checkbox"/> The History and Ongoing Need for ICWA                |
| <input type="checkbox"/> OCS Presentation and Discussion on the Initial Investigation Process | <input type="checkbox"/> Legal Parties; Their Roles and How to Work with Them |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Child in Need of Aid Case Stages                                     | <input type="checkbox"/> Services by Removal Section                          |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Placement Preferences & Permanency Options                           | <input type="checkbox"/> Qualified Expert Witnesses/Cultural Expert Witnesses |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Transfer to Tribal Jurisdiction                                      | <input type="checkbox"/> How to Find Your Tribe                               |

Number of Expected Attendees _____

Partners are responsible for promoting the training. ANJC requires a list of registered attendees to be emailed in advance.

For in-person training, ANJC requires:

- ☐ A minimum of 12 participants
- ☐ Arranged lodging for ANJC staff members
- ☐ Provided AV equipment